LOCAL NEWS AS REPORTED BY KDWA RADIO

BILLS PROTECT SPORTS OFFICIALS: In nearly 20 years of Sports Broadcasting in the Tri-County Area, KDWA's Nick Tuckner has met, and even befriended some of our local officials in numerous sports, and has heard horror stories about the way they are treated, leading to what has become an officials shortage, that started just before the pandemic hit. One of those officials is Minnesota District 56B State Representative John Huot, of Dakota County. Huot, and other Representatives are putting forth two bills, with one looking to fine unruly fans that interrupt play, and the other would give anybody who assaults an official steep penalties, including fines and or jail time. Huot joined Tuckner, to break down the importance of both bills. You can find the complete interview at kdwa.com!

CITY HALL CONSTRUCTION: As many may have noticed over the past week or so, that work is being done at Hastings City Hall, and as you walk or drive down Highway 61, you will notice work being done on the beautiful dome and annex, on the 100+ year old historic building. Hastings City Planner Justin Fortney joined KDWA News to talk about the work that is being done, the importance in keeping our old buildings to code or better, and how residents can follow along with the progress. There will be plenty of action happening around the City of Hastings when it comes to construction over the next few months, so be sure to stay tuned to KDWA radio! Check out the complete interview at kdwa.com!

PRESCOTT COMEDY CABARET: The Prescott Football "Flying P Club" will be hosting an evening of food, drinks, and laughs, to go along with a wonderful catered dinner from Ptacek's IGA, as Nationally Known Stand Up Comedian Steve Gillespie will perform at the Old Ptacek's Event Center, on Thursday, April 4th, at 7:00pm. The doors will open at 5:00pm, and tickets can be purchased via TEXT at 952-994-2161. Representative Trisha Packard of the Flying P Club joined KDWA's Nick Tuckner to preview this huge event, and you can find the complete interview, anytime, at kdwa.com!!

DUMB CRIMINAL: Police say an Ohio man was drunk when he had his 9-year-old neighbor drive him to a gas station to buy barbecue sauce for their chicken dinner. The boy drove the man to the gas station, but clerks wouldn't let the child drive home and reported the situation. Police say the 27-year-old man tried to drive home and was pulled over by officers. Police say the man's blood-alcohol content was several times the legal limit. They say he faces several charges, including child endangering, operating a vehicle while intoxicated, refusing a chemical breath test and driving under suspension.
