LOCAL NEWS AS REPORTED BY KDWA RADIO

HASTINGS COUNCIL MEETS: Regular meeting of the Hastings City Council will begin at 7 PM at Hastings City Hall. The public is welcome to attend.

EAB PATROL: The city forester, Paul Mahoney continues the city treatment of ash trees against EAB, Emerald Ash Borer. Rainbow Tree Service has been pre-qualified by the city to do chemical preventative treatments for residents at a bulk rate discount. Residents must contact them directly with a link you'll find on the City website. Residents are required to treat ash trees that are planted in the boulevards in front of their property.

LIFE JACKETS CRITICAL: The Washington County Sheriff's Office will participate in the Ready, Set, Wear It Life Jacket awareness program designed to heighten awareness of different life jacket types that are available for outdoor enthusiasts. Ready, Set, Wear It is part of the yearlong Safe Boating Campaign to promote boating safety and voluntary, consistent wear of life jackets. U.S. Coast Guard statistics show that drowning was the reported cause of death in four out of every five recreational boating fatalities in 2016, and that 83 % of those who drowned were not wearing life jackets.

TEE OFF FOR CNC: Enjoy a day of golf at the Afton Alps Golf Course in support of Carpenter Nature Center on July 23rd. All proceeds fund environmental education and habitat conservation at CNC. 18-hole best ball tournament with shotgun start. Meals catered by Colossal Café. Fees include box lunches, green fees, carts, dinner, and a donation to CNC. Hole sponsorships are available. Visit the CNC website or call Erika at 651-437-4359 to request a registration form. Fee: $95 per golfer or $380 for a team of four. 1 p.m. shotgun start.

IN THE GARDEN YEAR 2: Char Schaar gets green and growing with our In the Garden program each Wednesday. Listener's Photos and questions are always welcomed at InTheGarden@kdwa.com

DUMB CRIMINAL: Not safe OR sorry. An Alberta, Canada criminal climbed to the 5th story of a bank building, hoping to gain after hours access to a window that had been painted shut. Samuel Felter, 27, hung on after his rappelling gear jammed, leaving him blowing in the wind until a hook and ladder truck could rescue him.
