LOCAL NEWS AS REPORTED BY KDWA RADIO

HASTINGS: The Canadian Pacific Railroad has scheduled repairs and track replacement work at the E 2nd Street crossing in Hastings beginning on Monday, October 19th. Weather permitting, the work will take 3-5 days to complete. During the work, E 2nd Street will be closed between Lea Street and Tyler Street, and traffic will be detoured on Lea, E 1st, and Tyler Streets.

ROSEMOUNT: A proposed hotel and senior living complex in Rosemount has gotten preliminary approval for development by the City Council there. Several measures were approved for Rosewood Commons, which includes a hotel and six senior apartment buildings for several empty lots north of County Road 42 along Business Parkway. Blueprints show 124 total units of senior housing in six individual buildings. Two of the apartment buildings will have ground floor commercial space for neighborhood businesses.

DAKOTA COUNTY: Dakota County Parks and contractors will conduct prescribed burns at Lebanon Hills Regional Park, Spring Lake Park Reserve, Miesville Ravine Park Reserve and Whitetail Woods Regional Park between October and late November, as conditions allow. Fire is a natural process that helps to control invasive species and allows native plants to prosper. For more information, call 952-891-7000.

COMMUNITY EVENT: Hope Lutheran Church, at 16898 Michael Avenue, in Hastings, invite parishioners and the public to meet Missionary Barb Rebentisch, currently serving in Taiwan, on Thursday, October 22nd, at 6 PM. Barb will share stories about her missionary work, and organizers encourage attendees to dress for the weather and bring a chair.

DUMB CRIMINALS: William Brothers, of Manhasset, New York will spend 30 nights in jail for using a credit card that did not belong to him. The man used a VISA card from a wallet he found in a mall parking lot to ring up $900 in charges in about 30 minutes. The wallet was dropped by the director of security for that mall- the same one where Brothers racked up the charges. All transactions were captured on store video to seal the deal for his prosecution. On item that tripped him up was the ID in the wallet also had a tracking fob in it. Those security guys have all the coolest gadgets!

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21st, 2020 LOCAL SPORTS AS REPORTED BY KDWA RADIO

PARK NIPS RAIDERS IN HOME OPENER: The Hastings Raiders Football Team continued their 2020 Season on Friday at McNamara Stadium (Todd Field), as they welcomed the Park Wolfpack for a little rivalry football in the Home Opener. Both teams evened up their respective records, as the Wolfpack snuck past the Raiders, 19-7, in front of a sparse crowd of 250, due to covid protocol. Austin Haakenson, Blake Johnson, and Damarion Washington all scored on the ground against the usually tough Hastings defense. The lone score for the Raiders came in the second quarter, on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Axel Arnold to Stephen Reifenberger, but that was all the Raiders could muster, as the team went without any second half first downs. Meanwhile, the Wolfpack used a steady dose of the run to take the life, and clock out of the Raiders, in a game that was pretty unspectacular on both sides offensively. With the win, the Wolfpack jump to 1-1 overall, and 1-0 in the Section, while the Raiders drop to 1-1 overall, and 1-1 in the Section.

Park at Hastings Football Scoring Summary

Q1: NO SCORING

Q2 P: Haakenson 27 Run (Mueller Kick)

Q2 H: Reifenberger 18 Ps From Arnold (Hedin Kick)

Q3: NO SCORING

Q4 P: Johnson 4 Run (Kick Blocked)

Q4 P: Washington 17 Run (Kick Failed)

FINAL SCORE: Park 19, Hastings 7.

OFF TO SOUTH ST. PAUL FRIDAY: The Hastings Raiders Football Team will continue their 2020 Season with on the road, this Friday night, LIVE on KDWA Radio AM 1460, FM 97.7, KDWA.com, and with video included on the KDWA Facebook Page at 7pm! The Raiders will travel to South St. Paul, to take on the Packers! Join KDWA's Nick Tuckner for all of the play-by-play, beginning with the KDWA Sports Pre-Game Show at 6:15pm, with the kick to follow right at 7:00pm! Tune in to KDWA after the game, for a recap of the game, with Statistician Dick Cragg!
